

Pasture/Hay

Areas of grasses, legumes, or grass-legume mixtures planted for livestock grazing or the production of seed or hay crops, typically on a perennial cycle. Pasture/hay accounts for greater than 20 percent of total vegetation.

Irrigated = seasonally irrigated by flooding or by sprinklers

Dryland = hay grown without any irrigation